DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to applicant's amendment received on 25 May 2007.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Species 1 (Figures 4 and 8) in the reply filed on 25 May 2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the species as grouped are not patentably distinct from one another. This is not found persuasive because the applicant has disclosed an apparatus having more than one patentably distinct species which do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants of each other.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Laufer (U.S. Patent No. 6,083,219).

Claims 1-6: Laufer discloses a method for treatment of damaged heart valve leaflets and for reinforcing a native valve 18 comprising attaching a reinforcing support 26, 28 to at least one valve leaflet, attaching a reinforcing support to a downstream surface of the at least one valve leaflet, as well as attaching a reinforcing support to an upstream surface of the at least one valve leaflet, or in other words, attaching a reinforcing support to both an upstream surface and a downstream surface of the at least one valve leaflet, wherein attaching a reinforcing support to both an upstream surface and a downstream surface of the at least one valve leaflet comprises sandwiching the at least one valve leaflet between adjacent support members on opposite sides of the at least one valve leaflet, or between adjacent, interlocking support members on opposite sides of the at least one valve leaflet, and said support allowing a free edge of the at least one valve leaflet to form a seal with free edges of adjacent leaflets during diastole (Figures 3-5, col. 2, lines 35-62 and col. 5, lines 8-27).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 25 May 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

4. The applicant argues that the plates are never attached to the valve leaflets, but rather reshape the leaflets using plates which impart heat or pressure to the surface of the leaflet. The examiner disagrees. Regarding the Laufer device, the reinforcing support 26, 28 are attached or pressed or adhered, albeit temporarily, to at least one valve leaflet and the reinforcing support 26, 28 support or hold the valve leaflet, as maintained above. Therefore, Laufer reads on the claim limitations.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
